*Prizes of more than €300 will be subject to the withholding established by current legislation.

BASES

- The Sofia rule is established: prohibition of offering a draw before move 30. In exceptional cases, the presence and acceptance of the main arbiter will be required.
- For the preparation of the initial ranking as well as for the awards by ELO section, the FIDE STANDARD ELO list of December 2024 will be taken into account.
- A courtesy time of 30 minutes is established. The main arbiter will have the power not to determine the game as lost if this time elapses.
- A non-appearance will result in elimination from the tournament unless this non-appearance is justified. If the failure to appear occurs in the last round, the player will not be eligible for any prize.
- A total of 3 BYES of half a point can be requested from rounds 1 to 7, which must be requested (at the latest) at the end of your game in the previous round and always before the publication of the round for which the bye is requested.
- Electronic devices not specifically approved by the arbiter will be prohibited in the playing room. It will be allowed in the game room as long as it is turned off at all times and in a bag that must remain in the tournament room, even if the player is absent. A cell phone that emits a sound, beeps, alarms, is used or is turned on will result in the loss of the game.
- Participants will not be able to leave the tournament room without the arbiter's consent.
- Participants must leave the tournament room at the end of their game.
- It will be necessary to be at the awards ceremony to be eligible for them.
- The tournament participants, companions and legal guardians grant consent to obtain and share photographs and personal data in the different media that the organization considers appropriate for the necessary publicity of the event (classifications, games, photographs, videos, web pages, advertising, social networks, etc...).
- Participation in the Tournament implies knowledge and acceptance of these game rules.
- Failure to comply with these rules may result in the loss of a game or even expulsion from the Tournament, as well as the loss of any right to a prize and the return of any registration amount that the player may have paid.
- It will be the responsibility of each player to register correctly. Likewise, the participant has the obligation to check his/her data in the lists that are published (Byes, ELO, category, name, etc.).
- Game analysis will not be allowed in the tournament room.
- The arbiter team will not be responsible for storing mobile phones.
- Any player who, while playing a game, is caught using electronic devices that allow them to receive any type of chess assistance (computers, PDA or similar) will be immediately expelled from the competition, without the right to a refund of any amount. Likewise, in case of suspicion, refusing to comply with the arbitration requirements will lead to expulsion.
- The original scoresheet is the property of the organization and the players are obliged to deliver it signed and with the correct result to the arbiter at the end of the game.
- For anything not provided for in these rules, this tournament will be governed by the regulations of FIDE and FEDA.
- The decisions of the main arbiter will be appealable before the competition committee chosen from among the players in the first round.
- To do this, from the moment the game ends you will have 30 minutes to present your claim to the Main arbiter or Tournament Director (whoever is present), paying a deposit of €60.00 which will be - returned in the case of that your claim succeeds.

- If the resolution of any claim is necessary, the organization may decide whether the pairing is made before or after said resolution, with which subsequently said pairing would not be modified, but the result of the contested game or games would be modified.
 - RIGHT OF ADMISSION RESERVED.

_____ HYGIENE AND PROTECTION RULES AGAINST COVID19 _____

- Currently there are no restrictions, however this circumstance may change and in that case it will be governed by the PROTOCOL of the FMA, the FEDA and the Community of Madrid.
